

C.V

Abdullah Othman Abdullah. ABDURRAHIM

abdurrahim1963@gmail.com

abd.abdulrahiem1@sebhau.edu.ly

SUMMARY

Political, diplomatic and scholarly expertise for almost thirty years culminating in a vast experience and outlook for local and international affairs.

NOTABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- As an adviser to the Foreign Ministry, conducted, participated in and contributed to many sessions of Libya's negotiations with other governments and international organizations and institutions.
- Between 2000 and 2006, organized and participated in five sessions called the "Libyan- American Dialogue" which started well before the normalization of relations between Libya and the US, helping to create a better atmosphere and understanding between the two countries leading to the normalization and lifting of international and US sanctions imposed on Libya.
- Recruited and contracted Libyan, Arab and international staff and scholars with the aim of providing the best possible studies and analyses to the decision makers and to the Libyan and international public illuminating them on the developments and events for a more comprehensive understanding .

C.V

- Organized and participated in more than forty conferences, round tables and dialogues organized in cooperation with different Think Tanks and universities including Columbia and Georgetown Universities in US, CSIS in Washington DC, Oxford and Cambridge University in the UK, Chatham House in London, and others in Egypt, the Ukraine, Russia and Spain among others. Subjects included a wide range of political, economic and social subjects comprising, among others, Globalization, Social Development, Practical Implementation of Democracy in Libya, Political and Diplomatic Efforts for Mediation and Reconciliation, Political Philosophy, Peace Processes in the Middle East and Africa, the Question of Palestine-Israel, US involvement in the Middle East and Africa and Modernizing Societies.
- Organized, conducted and participated in small round tables and studies on Political Islam in Libya and around the world.
- Organized and participated in dozens of lectures, conferences, round tables and activities inside Libya leading to many political, social and economic programs aiming at modernizing the society, civil service and good governance.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Special Adviser 2001-2011

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs Tripoli, Libya

- Consulting on, and participating in, dialogue with senior officials of different countries.

Director General 2001-2007

The Green Book Center Tripoli, Libya

C.V

- Transforming the Center into a full fledged think tank with modern and up to international standard technological and human capabilities.

Associate Professor/Lecturer 1996-2001

AlFateh University, School of Social Studies Tripoli, Libya

- Lecturing and teaching on political philosophy and social theories.

EDUCATION

Ph.D. on Globalization (2000)

AlFateh University

Tripoli, Libya

Master's Degree on "The End of History" (1996)

AlFateh University

Tripoli, Libya